7. About Residence Status

Applicants are required to hold a student visa or other types of valid visa status (permanent resident etc.) that enables her/him to reside in Japan until graduation. Check the details from below.

1) Applicants who have visa status (residing in Japan)

The school will provide a document called "Affiliation organization" in order to fill the form for visa application to the following applicants: an applicant who already holds a student visa and is required to renew her/his period of stay; an applicant who needs to change her/his residing status to “student” from another type of visa. After the admission procedure, please inform us and proceed with your visa application, depending on your current visa status.

2) Applicants who do not have visa status (residing in overseas)

The school will send an official request on behalf of applicants who passed the admission exams to the Regional Immigration bureau to issue a “Certificate of eligibility” (COE). Once the Regional Immigration bureau issues the COE, the school will send it to the applicant via mail. Please apply for a student visa at the Japanese embassy/consulate in the receiving country. It takes about 3 months to obtain a COE, so please submit the following documents required for issuing a “Certificate of Eligibility” after the admission procedure.

① Letter of Financial Support

Letter of supporter affirming ability to cover all costs and fees during the duration of enrollment.

(The letter should be written in supporter’s native language, with Japanese translation attached.)

※ Please describe in detail the circumstances in which supporter (one who takes responsibility for payment of expenses) is not the applicant or the applicant’s parent.

② Documents certifying the employment certificate of supporter and the amount of income for the past three years

* If the documents are incomplete, we cannot apply for the Certificate of Eligibility on your behalf.

* Please confirm. Additional documents may be requested by the Immigration Bureau. Correctly indicate the number of times you have applied for issuance and the number of times you have been issued. In addition, all submitted documents and if the application is rejected due to false information regarding the contents of the application, we will not accept a re-application at our university.

* The “Certificate of Eligibility for Resident Status” will be examined by the Immigration Bureau, and visa acquisition will be examined by the Japanese embassy or consulate in the country of residence. The university will not take any responsibility for issuance or non-issuance.

8. Admission and Enrollment Procedures

KJLTC will send the copy of the “Certificate of Eligibility” and document of “information about payment of school fees” to the applicant after getting the notice of approval of the “Certificate of Eligibility” from the Immigration Services Agency of Japan (Osaka branch).

School fees and other charges must be transferred to the designated account before the due date prior to completing the enrollment application. Please note that if the application is not complete by the due date, the application would be treated as cancellation / withdrawal.

After the applicant completes all the admission procedures, KJLTC will send the "Certificate of Enrollment" and original document of "Certificate of Eligibility" to the applicant through the designated office or by mail.

Failure to complete the application by the specified date would cause cancellation by default and will be considered as non-willingness to enroll by applicant’s side. If applicant declines admission, contact Admissions Office immediately.
